

An Abolitionist Lecture

Please answer the following points in paragraph form:

Audience/Group Members

1. What group were you assigned to?
2. How do you personally feel about the historical figures represented by this group?
3. What did you learn by studying this group?
4. Did your perception of the group change over time?
5. Give a paragraph summarizing the main points of each of the three speakers.
6. Which speaker did you find most persuasive? Why?

Role Players

1. What did you learn by studying your character?
2. Did your perception of your character change over time?
3. What do you believe to be your character's most convincing point of argument?