

Guided Notes: Propaganda In WWII

Goals on the Home front (review!):

1. Convince men to join the army
2. Keep FDR in office
3. Persuade people to take on rations
4. Force total mobilization
5. Persuade people to give money to the war effort

Definition of Propaganda:

(Created by students)

Characteristics Common in Most Propaganda:

demonization, emotional appeals, half-truths or lies, evocative visual symbols, and caricatures, name calling, patriotic appeals, catchy slogans, humor

Modify according to the consensus of your class

